NYE Masked Ball

Sat 31st Dec 2011

This year we are starting 2012 with a heavy weight line up of local live acts and international DJ's

Sigma Both producers and highly sought after DJs in their own right, Sigma's recent highlights include their huge minimix for Annie Mac on Radio One, and remixes for artists such as Top Cat & Ms Dynamite.

The Prototypes Discovered by the legendary Roni Size and united after being rival promoters, this duo are breaking records with a new release with Frictions own Shogun Audio that now features as many DJs opening track.

Laid Blak Officially the UK's number 1 reggae band 2011 & fresh from Supporting top 5 artist Ed Sheeran on his UK tour 'The essential festival act' are tight, polished and completely at home playing both good times carnival beats or the heaviest dancehall.

First Degree Burns First Degree Burns (FDB) are an eight piece band channeling Skank driven Ska, Roots Reggae, Two Tone, Rock, Metal all through the umbrella of Hip Hop to create 'Skip Hop.' Up tempo, conscious, and most importantly DANCEable!

DJ Read One of Bristol's most sought after sound selectors, Read's floor-filling shows are jam packed with soul, funk, rock, ska, swing, scratching, jungle & massive Jamaican rhythms.

Poseidon Poseidon has been making music for the past 15years his most recent tracks are influenced by artists such as Breakage, Nayo and Knife Party. His beats are sure to get you moving. You can listen to one of his new tracks at BBC 1xtra.

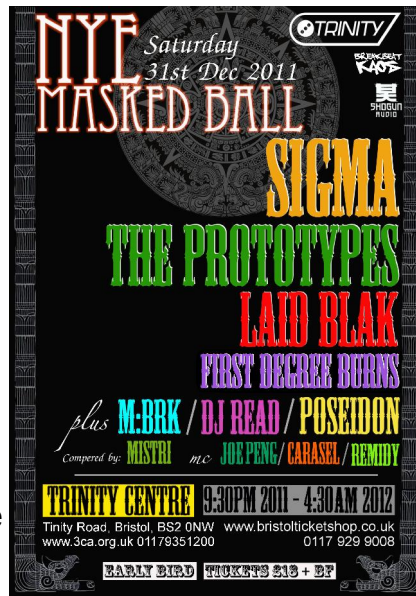

M : BRK M : BRK (embark) is a new producer and DJ living in Bristol. He started creating sound scapes in 2008 and has moved on to much more structured tracks. He uses his own recorded audio from everyday sounds to audio recorded from his travels through Thailand & Laos.

Our compere is Ujima's very own Mistri, plus mc's Carasel, Remidy and Joe Peng.

We have extra fun to be had from Bristol/London's Beauty School Drop Outs who specialize in avant-garde glitter make up for those who want to add to what they have or for those who don't have masks. Also After Dark's photo booth to capture those moments.

Get creative and start making your own amazing mask now! Tickets are on sale now from Bristol Ticket Shop, Idle Hands (Stokes Croft) and Cooshti (Park Street).

CW Stoneking review

Australian troubadour CW Stoneking livens up a November evening with his jungle blues

CW Stoneking pullsoff an improbable impersonation of deep authenticity tonight by Treating us to grandly tall tales and lots of downright fibs. Whatever else we were believing about his job in the New Orleans Voodoo Emporium, his tale of a drowning Trinidad scientist being paddled onto the Gabon shore with a short-necked banjo is the moment when we all surrender to gales of happy laughter.

The Medicine Show at Trinity is spectacularly entertaining. The jungle music of CW Stoneking and his Primitive Horn Section is the perfect soundtrack for getting dressed up, drinking and storytelling and the crowd at Trinity are up and dancing from the first song.

Tunes come from two of his finest albums, Jungle Blues and King Hokum, and he alternates between solo and band, banjo and resonator guitar and between dance, blues and story formats. Cab Calloway, Big Joe Turner, Louis Armstrong, Ma Rainey, Blind Lemon Jefferson, Jimmy Rogers are all here in spirit tonight: CW Stoneking sounds like none of them specifically, but he knows and loves all of their music and he has a fabulous blues voice (the yodelling disaster notwithstanding).

While his albums are unquestionably very good, it's his great stage presence and an enthralling live show that sets him apart from the rest.

Arts West Side

Work is well on it's way and its really starting to take shape. We have a great group of volunteers that are placing their stamp on Arts west Side. There have been many community projects that have already taken place and this is just the start. The next project coming up is 'From the Earth', the first ceramic project that is drawing the community together by making Old Markets very own clay army. You can come along on Dec 13th, Dec 15th & Dec 20th, all from 6pm-8pm at 6 West Street, Old Market, BS2 0BH.
